

EXERCISE: 3-6 Interacting with agencies

As homework, research each of the agency types listed. For each agency type, consider what your particular interaction with the agency could be for your future business.

- EXAMPLE: NFIB – interact with to research policy that impacts my business. Become a member to receive updates and benefits.

Write your answers below:

1. Zoning office – (hint: Search “business license” and your home town or state)

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

2. Internal Revenue Service - www.IRS.gov

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

3. Business License. (hint: Search “business license” and your home town or state)

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

4. State corporation commission

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

5. Department of Labor – www.DOL.gov

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

6. Small Business Administration – (www.SBA.gov)

My business's potential interaction with this agency:

7. Associations and Membership Organizations:

- For the established entrepreneur (National Federation of Independent Business – www.nfib.org, United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship – USASBE - <http://www.usasbe.org> , Young Entrepreneur's Organization – www.yeo.org)
- For the emerging entrepreneur (DECA – www.deca.org, NFTE – www.nfte.com –Junior Achievement – www.ja.org)

My business's potential interaction with these associations/groups:
