

Joseph Staudenbaur

Associate Professor

Examples of Student Art Products

By Katie Lanhoue

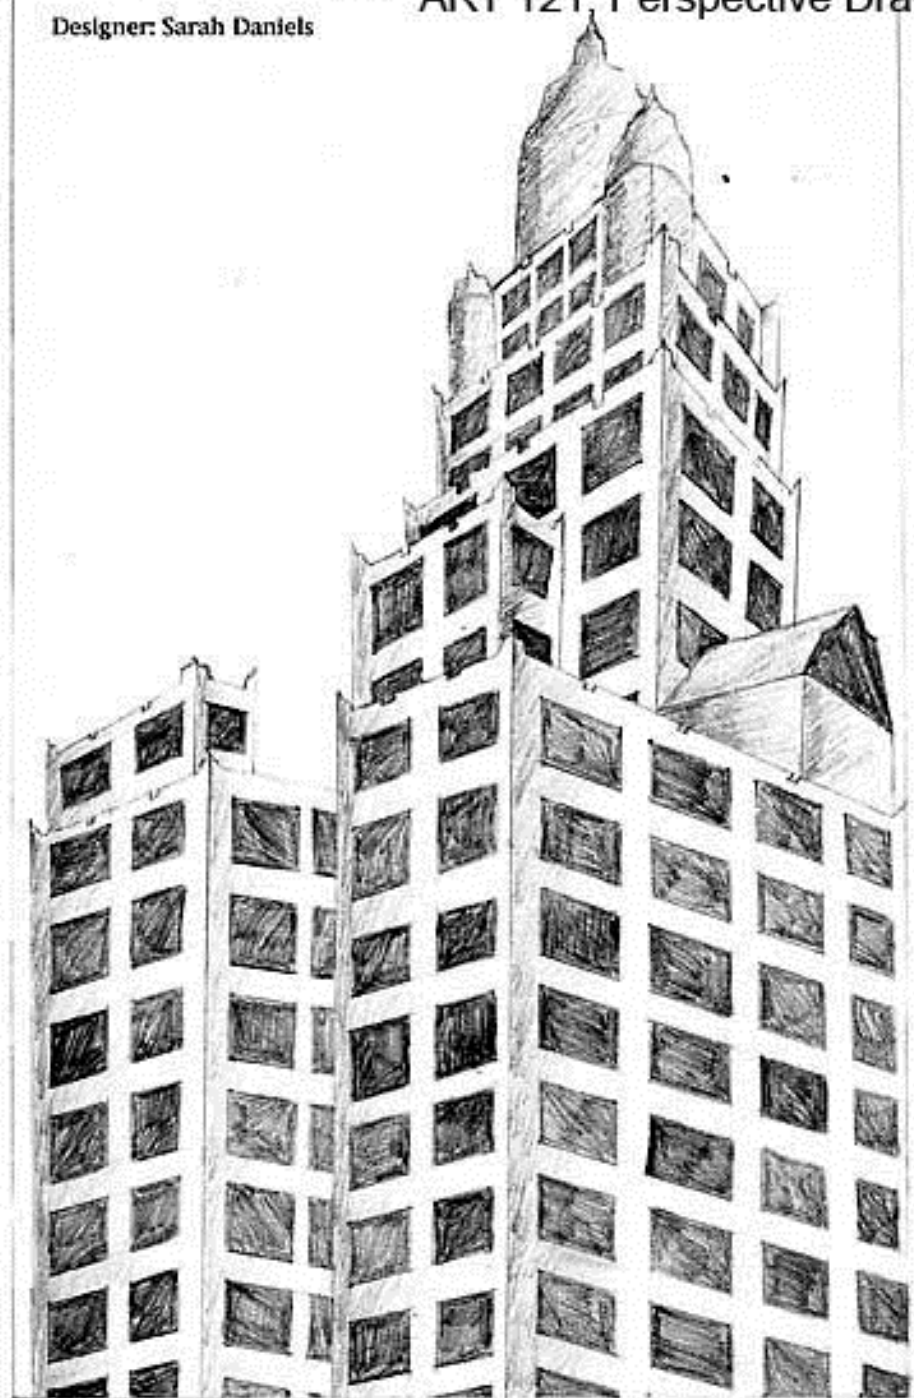

By Arid Boschee

Design I - Students explore design using a 4x4" square..

Designer: Sarah Daniels

ART 121 Perspective Drawing

Design by Megan Wollersheim

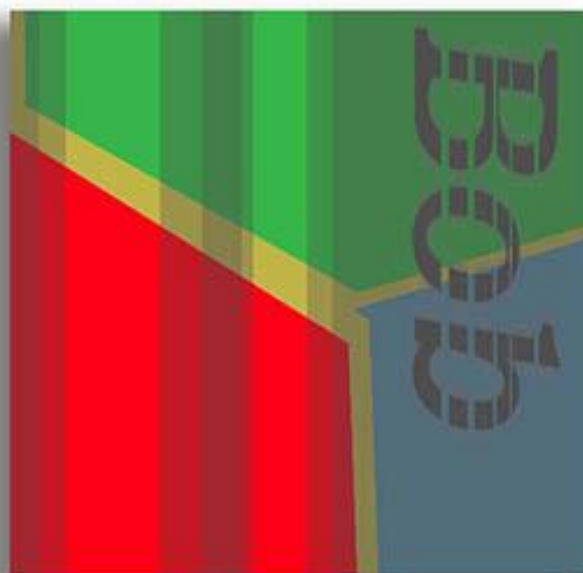

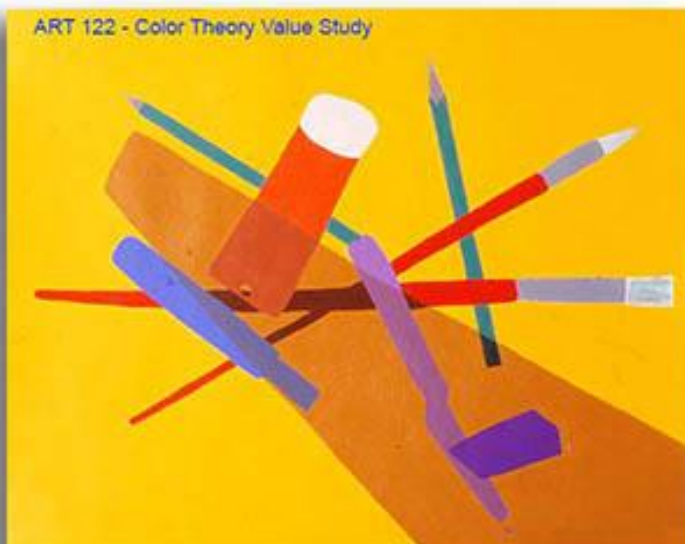

ART 123 - 3D Design - Assemblage

Color Theory - Student designs explore color and typography.

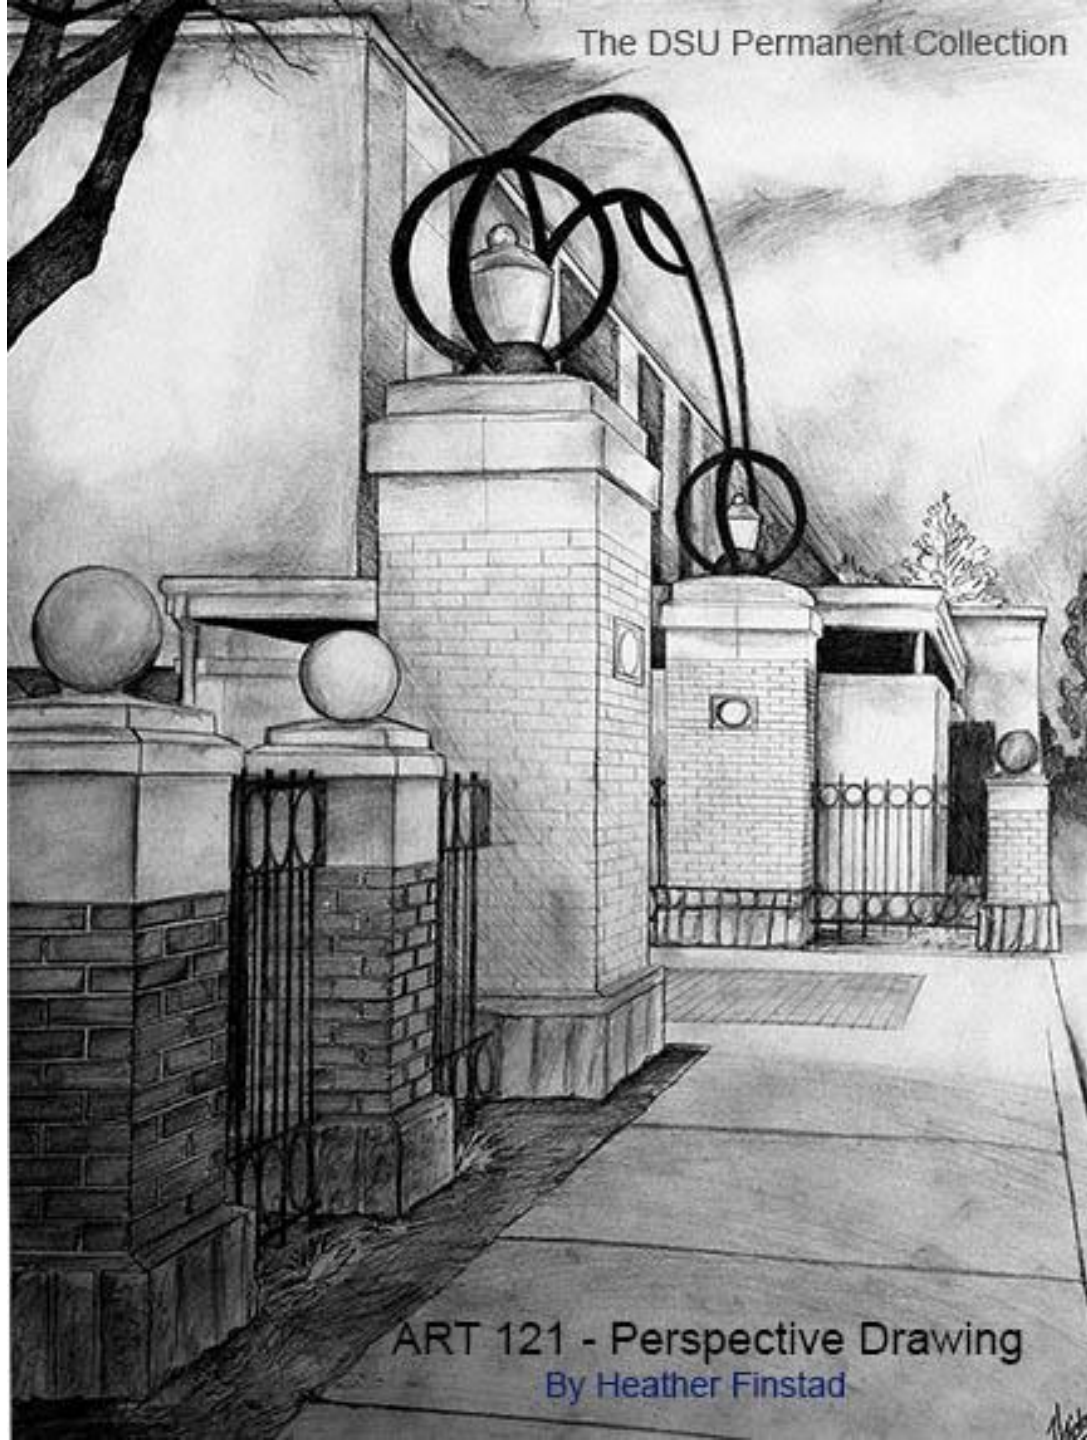

Color Theory - Students use digital and traditional methods to explore color, typography and composition.

Design I - Students study shapes, composition and symbolism.

ART 121 - Perspective Drawing
By Heather Finstad

ART 340 - 3D Design
Wood Sculpture

1st Place Award - Student Art Exhibit By Justin Nelson

By Luke Calkins

Earthenware, wire, fabric, height 8"

3D Design

ART 121 - 2D Design

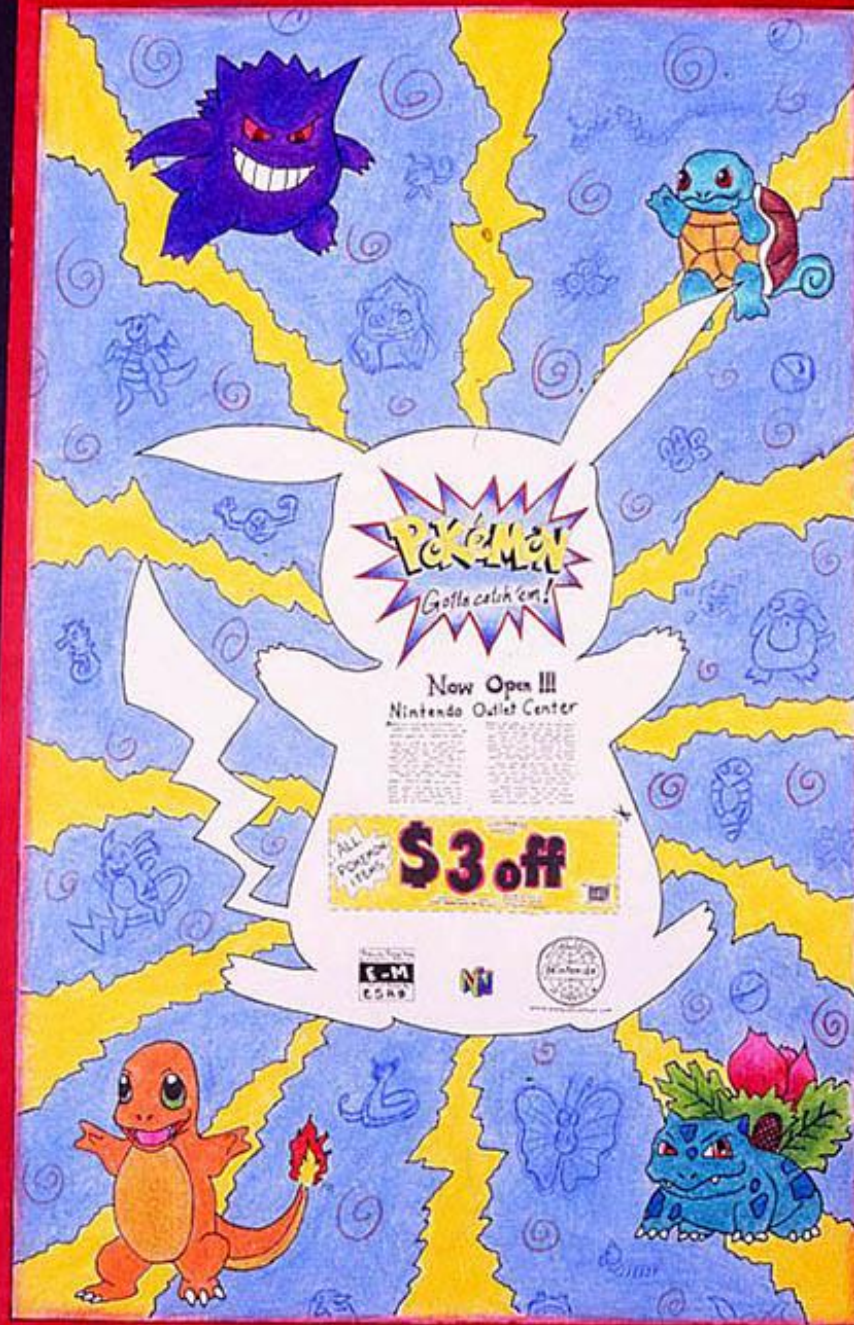

By Sarah Daniels (pencil)

By Soujo Twaddle

(Pencil and paper)

Service to the University: Graphic Design/Photography
 Since 2002 I have photographed cultural events
 at Dakota State University for Diversity Services.
 My ARTD 282 students designed the annual Pow Wow posters.
 Posters were created CMYK and printed by a commercial press.

STAFF
 Master of Ceremonies: Clark Zephier
 Arena Director: Claude Two Elk
 Host Drum: Bad Nation
 Color Guard: Flandreau
 Santee Sioux Tribe

DAY MONEY
 PAID TO ALL
 DANCERS AND DRUMS.
 First 5 drums
 guaranteed $100.

PROGRAM
 Dance & Drum Registration: 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM
 Grand Entries: 1:00 PM & 6:00 PM
 DSU Supper: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

"Healing of the Nations"
 6th Annual Spring Pow-Wow
 Saturday, April 12th 2003
 Madison City Armory, Madison, SD

Special Thanks to the Creator, Dakota State University, Office of Diversity Services, All Indian Nations, Interhall Council, and all participants.

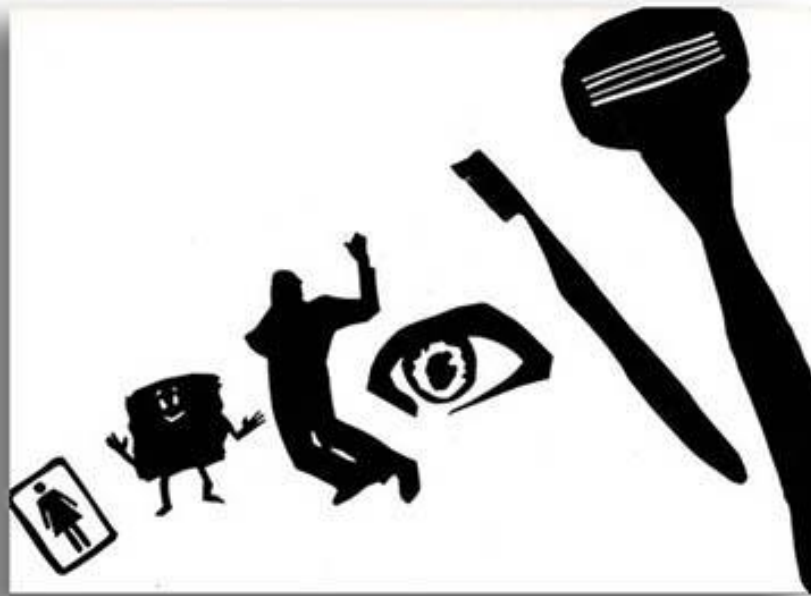

For more information contact
 Steven Martin-ODS 605-256-
 Steven.Martin@dsu.edu

AMERICAN INDIAN POW WOW
 APRIL 12TH
 MADISON, SD

POW WOW
 Grand Entry at 7:00
 Bring your friends

POW WOW
 "HEALING OF THE NATIONS"
 7TH ANNUAL SPRING POW WOW
 SAT. APRIL 12TH '04 5PM
 MADISON CITY ARMORY
 MADISON, SD
 ADMISSION - FREE
 ALL INDIAN NATIONS DIVERSITY SERVICES

Photography by Joe Staudenbaur

Design I - Students study shapes, composition and symbolism.

By Stephanie Terwilliger

ART 340 - Sculpture Techniques / Earthenware and mixed media.

