• • SHOPPING ALERT • •

Plan to do some "on-site" shopping at the convention in the BRIDGEVIEW BOOKSTORE for items unique to our convention, its theme, its speakers, antiques and souvenirs. To assist you in planning and packing to come to the convention, here is a checklist. You'll feel good as you check the boxes and your suitcase fills up!

BE SURE TO BRING:

☐ Your Camera to capture a photo of you and your chapter members in a vintage automobile journeying across the historic Meridian Bridge over the Missouri River on Friday afternoon.

☐ Walking shoes if you're interested in a brisk, 20-minute, early-morning health walk on Saturday. No need to let the convention interrupt your faithful, daily exercise routine!

☐ WNAX/Neighbor Lady Cookbooks by Wynn Speece, to buy, sell or swap.

☐ Ever-popular, multi-purpose dollars to spend in the Bridgeview Bookstore, on raffle tickets, the President's Travel Fund Basket Auction and "Neighbor Lady" cookbooks.

We are pleased to present these items for the 2007 Preservation and Restoration Raffle

1. Marghab Linens. The first two raffle items are Marghab, the "Tiffany" of fine linen. Unsurpassed in quality, the linens were sold exclusively in 54 Marghab salons across the country from 1934 to 1984.
   • Blue ‘Jacaranda Tree’ and pink ‘Butterfly’ fingertip towels are offered together as one item.
   • Shell pink hand towel in ‘Bow’ pattern, complete with letter of authenticity.

2. 1950’s Sparkling Vintage Jewelry Set.
   • By Sarah Coventry in the ‘Dazzling Aurora’ design, set with red aurora borealis rhinestones, including brooch, bracelet, and clip earrings.

Where to go when you get to Yankton on Friday, May 4 for Check-In Heading south on Douglas Street will take you straight to Riverside Park and the Dakota Territorial Capitol Replica where check-in will be held.

The Kelly Inn and Minerva’s is located on East Highway 50
